President's Message

By George Finch, President

Those of us that participated in the SAE Aero Design West Contest or just watched it had a blast, especially Sunday when the college students tried to fly at their heaviest weights. Sunday morning there was no wind and few planes left the ground, for very long. For the second round on Sunday, a ten knot. wind came up and those with a flying plane, had a much better chance of getting off the ground. The neat part was that all competitors cheered when someone had a successful flight. Wings were folding, planes were getting off and then were not able to turn downwind, some proved uncontrollable or so tail heavy they were unflyable and one British Columbia group used the same flying tail design on three airplanes which eventually failed on all, resulting in dives into the weeds. It was like watching NASCAR. Thanks to Barry Leavengood and Jay Repogle, who along with myself tried to fly the worst of the planes (because some of the design teams did not have a pilot). Barry worked long and hard with two teams, for two days and nights straight trying to repair damage of test flights, including moving a wing 2 inches to the rear to get the plane in something close to balance. I got to fly a piped twin JETT .91 that had no ground steering and solid aluminum landing gear at 54 pounds.

I understand that Peck Polymers has closed its doors, so we should see some originals at the ROG Contest to be held at the June meeting. Anything with rubber band power that can leave the floor and head towards the stage has a chance. Come hungry, as at $5.00 a person, it is all you can eat pizza.

It turns out that spite was more the problem with contest cancellation at Whittier than the Park Supervisor. The Supervisor told the flyers that she should have been consulted before permission was asked from the FAA for high altitude IMAC flying and cancelled the IMAC Contest. Then the San Gabriel Board cancelled all contests for 2006. Seems dumb, but they must have other ways to raise operating money. I cut a deal with Steve Sahagean and Dennis Moran to hold the races at the Basin, and share the race proceeds, based on how many workers were furnished by each club. If we furnish the food, we can make as much as they do, even if they furnish all the workers.

We need to lay out the FAI course and do some concrete work in the park flyer and flight line areas, Dave figures two truckloads. See Dave Sweany and Dave Hendrex if you can help out.

Apparently, we are going to have to change the definition of "park flyer" to 16oz. or less and be slow enough to stay within the bounds of the park flyer area. I had the pleasure of talking to Carl Maroney, the AMA insurance guru who was visiting the Field on his way to settle a Santa Barbara incident, as one of Tony DeLeo's customers zipped his fighter back and forth in front of the pits and over the heads of pilots flying on the main runway. Fortunately, Eric had caught some rays next to his chopper earlier and had left. Also, helicopters are being flown off tables and in the grass areas, by the brain damaged who can't imagine radio or heli failure.

--George

Test Flight

Special by Bob Smith
PETE N' POKE TEST FLIGHT

For those of you that have asked, yes, the test flight on the Pete is in the books.

A photo of the parasol aircraft is included with this article. Along with the tough building of the kit, came the observation that I made a mistake when adding the additional leading edge material to get a 'good' shape. The material was too heavy! I estimate that between the additional wood and the adhesive, 14 ounces was added to the overall weight (which by the way is 6 pounds 14 ounces). That's a lot of weight for a .45 engine to lug around. And it was evident on the first flight. By the way the kit box estimated 5 ¾ lbs all up weight.

Before I get to the flying portion, I want to praise O.S. on their old .45 FSR. I installed a new ABC piston and sleeve, which I purchased sometime back from Jay's Hobby House. I ran a few tanks of 15% fuel though it on the aircraft and then set the needle to a conservative high end and brought it back to idle. After over 20 years of aging, it purred like a kitten, without even adjusting the low-end needle! With a 10-6 Power Point prop, it was ready to fly.

Harvey Elmes arrived to help me test fly it. We did a pylon launch take off and it plundered down the runway for about 30 yards before laboring into the air. There's nothing like the feeling of seeing your truly hard labor take to the air. This aircraft will be perfect for flying at the Canyon Crosswinds field. You can go slow, low and tight. I was disappointed in the fact the .45 was having some difficulty carrying the 6lbs 14oz around.

On the next flying session I switched to an 11x5 Zinger prop (APC props will require some sculpturing on the spinner). What an amazing difference! The pylon style take off roll was about 5 yards and it was off. The airspeed increase was just astounding!

Take off and landings in a crosswind can be challenging but it is a joy to fly!

Thanks Harvey for your help!

SHOESTRING/SUPERTIGRE TEST FLIGHT

I've included a picture (fuselage only) of the now discontinued Great Planes Shoestring. Some of you may recall I mentioned that the Tigre .90 was running hot due the muffler being the size to be used with the Tigre .61 (cowl limitation). Well I've learned that a bigger motor is not always better.

The picture depicts the new Supertigre .61 ABC installed in the Shoestring. It has an 11/8 APC prop and hauls butt! The Shoe actually is faster than the version with the .90 installed although not as maneuverable due to the excessive speed. Supertigre moved their facility to China and the same equipment went along for the ride. The end result is the same quality motor as from Italy at a very reasonable price.

I plan on putting the cowl back on for the next session and expect the motor to run cool. I'll keep you posted!

Thanks again Harvey for your help!
